Superintendent's Highlights

Highlights of the year included ongoing review and adherence to the District's Facilities Plan and Curriculum Review Plan.

A new Junior High School Lunchroom will be completed in the summer of 1998. Other facilities projects underway include a project to relocate staff parking at the elementary school for safety purposes and the installation of a Wide Area Network to connect technology in all schools.

Extensive curriculum work in music, art, physical education, and vocational education was completed.

Drug Free Schools programs continued to expand, and a Student Assistance Program is now in place.

Board members completed the first year of a three year policy review cycle.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

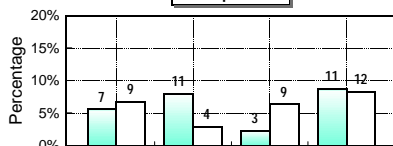

1997-98 Goals	Progress
Review workable proposals for Jr. High School lunchroom.	Plans drafted to convert old woodshop to a lunchroom. Work will be complete in summer, 1998.
Engage in comprehensive policy review on 3 year cycle.	Policy manual divided into yearly review units. First unit review completed during winter, 97-98.
Evaluate alternative placements for special needs students.	Full report given to Board by Special Services Director. An additional room was created at the Jr. High level. Regular coordination meetings held between school administration and juvenile detention coordinators.
Evaluate staffing needs related to delivery of special services.	Evaluated, but financial barriers and staffing allocations are an ongoing problem.
Support practices that enhance teaching and learning.	The Board holds one meeting annually in each building and receives reports from the respective staff. Board members receive Calendar of Activities and have increased their attendance at a wide variety of events.
